A NEW, one of a kind, affordable, early childhood music program is being launched at Austin's largest and most prestigious music school

Give your children the foundation and love for music that will stay with them the rest of their life.

Little Rockers offers an interactive curriculum including:

- Musikgarten, an internationally acclaimed early childhood music program.
- Two music experts collaborating together, Annie Benson, 16 years in the field of early childhood music and David Sebree, founder of Austin School of Music.
- Live, interactive, music presentations from outstanding musicians active in Austin's vibrant music scene will be incorporated into the class experiences.
- “Free Time” on drum set, grand piano, percussion instruments and electric guitar encouraging self expression, confidence and creativity.
- Complimentary video documentation of your child in class to share online with friends and family.
